William B. Bierce

William B. Bierce is an award-winning international business lawyer with Bierce & Kenerson, P.C. based in New York City concentrating on complex cross-border commercial, technology, and investment transactions. He has been practicing “global services” law for over 15 years and international business law for 30 years. He advises multinationals (and those aspiring to be) on contracting and compliance issues in outsourcing, captives, and related strategic alliances such as consolidations.

Bill is also publisher of Outsourcing Law & Business™, a monthly e-letter, and www.outsourcing-law.com, the premier website on outsourcing law. In matters of foreign and comparative law, Bill has been an officer or committee chairman in various bar associations and has taught MBA courses.

Bill graduated from Yale University, University of Grenoble, France (Law Degree with honors) and NYU School of Law (JD).
